Please bring something small and burnable that represents whatever you wish to be energetically free of - a non-synthetic cloth, cord, wood, anything that can be burned or composted safely. You can even just write a word or symbol on a piece of paper.

Perhaps it's a soured relationship, a toxic workplace, an outdated belief.. the choice is entirely personal and you don't have to explain or justify it to anyone. We'll be symbolically binding ourselves up in them one last time with a meditative exercise led by Luna and Chelsie... and then all together, we'll destroy our bindings and break free!

Afterwards we'll make a joyful procession to lay the remains of our objects on the Temple to be burned. If you prefer, you're also welcome to take yours home and bury it, compost it, transform it into art, or whatever you like. Just remember: it no longer holds you. You're free.

Furniture Fiasco: Smash 'n Burn Spectacular

Saturday 7-9pm at Camp Smash-o-Rama

Camp Smash-o-Rama: Where We Turn Dorm Room Junk into Art at Mosaic Experiment
You know that old college furniture you've been dragging around like a ball and chain? It's time to break free, and we mean that literally! Welcome to Camp Smash-o-Rama, where we've turned furniture destruction into a high art form at Mosaic Experiment. A college furniture smashing party, you say? INDEED! It's the most audacious way to part with your past design missteps. Grab that relic of a bed, that tragic couch, or that kitchen table that saw way too many microwave dinners - bring it all. And guess what? We're arming you with sledgehammers and anvils. It's the farewell bash your college junk deserves.

Picture this: Three hours before the Saturday night burn, we'll gather under the stars to bid farewell to our furniture faux pas. Beds, couches, kitchen tables, chairs - it's all fair game. As the desert sun sets, you'll have your shot at fame, smashing your way into the history books.

Therapeutic Destruction: It's time to exorcise those college demons, one sledgehammer swing at a time. This is therapy, and it's a whole lot cheaper than the couch variety.

Join the Celestial Chaos Club: Meet fellow burners who appreciate the finer things in life - like turning old furniture into a smashing good time. Camp Smash-o-Rama is where you belong if you have a taste for chaos and a penchant for snark.

Instagram-Worthy: Be part of a spectacle so Instagram-worthy that your friends won't believe it's real. Your smashing skills will set the stage for an unforgettable night.

Burn the Past: Burning Man is all about self-expression, and what better way to express your disdain for your old stuff than by incinerating it?

Camp Smash-o-Rama is the wild card in the Mosaic Experiment deck, a place where experimentation knows no bounds, and creativity flows like spilled paint. It's your chance to let your snark flag fly and mingle with a crowd of fellow furniture haters. So, whether you're seeking closure with your college décor mistakes or simply itching for an excuse to smash something to smithereens, join us at Camp Smash-o-Rama. Leave your inhibitions at home, embrace the chaos, and let's make your old junk history. Come on over and smash it in style at Camp Smash-o-Rama!

Late Night Mild West Cinema

*Sunday 2-4am at The * Ranch lounge*

Grab your spurs (or your space boots, whichever suits your style), because we're unleashing tumbleweeds and moonlit mayhem that'll make you wonder if those cacti are secretly dancing. So dust off your Stetsons, bring a star blanket for comfort, and join us as we rustle up some laughter and adventure beneath the wide open sky. Just remember, when the clock strikes twelve, even the coyotes will be howlin' for more! Yee-haw!

Dept of Creative Compliments / Bureau of Random Snacks

The Dollification Station is here for all your Mosaic makeup and beautification needs!

We'll also have a makeup and kitschy accessory gifting table. Come donate accessories, makeup, nail polish, etc or peruse offerings and see if you find something cool!

Curious about makeup? Come share skills and techniques with others! We'll organize at least one skillshare /meetup time but this is an open space for anyone to explore, learn, teach, and/or share.

Guys, girls, enbies, interdimensional space phoenixes, people who think gender is a hoax, and everyone else: you're all welcome. The Dollification Station is a fully inclusive space and will celebrate and support you trying new looks, just asking questions, or touching up your usual aesthetic with no pressure or anything but love.

So come experiment with some guyliner. Share your favorite eyeshadow tricks and pick up some new ones. Or just have a nice space to touch up your look before burn night. You don't need it; you're beautiful just the way you are and I will fight anyone who disagrees. But it's still super fun to play around with different looks and discover new and exciting ways to be beautiful. ?

(Note: for health reasons please don't donate opened or used mascara, lipstick, etc. For MOOP reasons please don't use non-biodegradable glitter products at the Dollification Station.)
